MEMORANDUM FOR: Associate Deputy Director for Intelligence

SUBJECT : Request to Attend Congressional Staff
Seminar of Center for Strategic and International Studies, 18 June 1975

1. The Georgetown University Center for Strategic and International Studies will hold a seminar for senior Congressional staff members on 18 June 1975. The theme of the two-hour seminar is to be "Soviet Leadership Today and Tomorrow." Mr. Ray Cline, the moderator, has invited me to speak for about 15 minutes on this subject. I request permission to fulfill this request.

2. I have been informed that no members of the press will attend. Even so, it is understood that I will not discuss classified information in delivering my remarks and answering questions. As in previous professional activities outside, I will be identified at the seminar as an employee of CIA.
